ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I would like to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to all who, in one way or another, have helped me complete this study.

First of all, my sincere gratitude is due to the German Bishops' Conference which supported me in my studies. I, furthermore, would like to thank Msgr. Theodorus van den Tillaart, SVD, Bishop of Atambua, Timor, Indonesia, who recommended me for the scholarship, and the SVD Fathers of the San Carlos Community, who provided material and moral assistance during my stay in Cebu City.

Appreciation and gratitude are due to:

Dr. Eugene Verstraelen, SVD, and Dr. Ernest Brandewie, my advisers, who guided me throughout the study. My high regard and thanks go to Dr. Brandewie, my overseas adviser, who has shown me his deep concern and help without which this work would not have been completed.

Dr. Marcelino Maceda, my censor, for his valuable suggestion and his taking time to go over this manuscript.

Dr. Rudolf Rahmann, SVD, for his great concern and special help in facilitating communication with Dr. Brandewie in the United States, from the start until the completion of this work.

Mrs. Leonisa Ramas, MA, Curator of the USC Museum, for going over the manuscript.

Dr. Joseph Goertz, SVD, for all the help he gave as the Director of Research and Scholarships.

Fr. Robert Schmitz, SVD, Vice-President for Finance for his kind help since my arrival until my departure.

Dr. Gertrudes R. Ang, for her special advice and guidance.

Lastly, to Miss Ma. Lourdes Batiquin, my typist and to all my friends, who, in their own ways, provided help of any sort during my fruitful stay in Cebu City.
