ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am most grateful to DR. HAROLD OLOFSON who gave me the push to work on my thesis. His encouragements, invaluable suggestions and final corrections have greatly aided in the completion of this work.

I am also thankful to REV. FR. THEODORE D. MURNANE, SVD, Presidential Assistant for Research and Faculty Development of the University of San Carlos, for the approval of the deloading requests and for the financial assistance.

Special acknowledgments are due to the members of the Carolinian Sociological-Anthropological Society (CARSAS): Aloy, Clyde, Tomas, Franco, Dennis, Rey, Jerry, Lester, Mikee, and Leny, for their tremendous assistance in the field specifically when I conducted the socio-economic survey of Paradise Island.

For all the illustrations, sincere thanks go to Lester Paz and Dennis Abarrientos.

To Jojo Bersales, Joylyn Trasmonte-Paz and Jocelyn Gerra-Scholz, thanks for the moral support.

Mr. Winston Monzon provided the photographs of Paradise Island in its early days.

Mr. Reyes of Paradise Island, Looc, was very helpful and accommodating.

To the panel of examiners: DR. MARCELINO MACEDA, DR. ANDRES GERONG, AND DR. MONTANA SANIEL, thanks for the generous comments and suggestions.

My greatest debt is to my husband, PETE, and children, Peter Gino, Stephanie Blanche, Hannah Gale and Jennifer Jason, who have always been there to provide me with love and inspiration.

And my deepest gratitude goes to GOD for His gifts of family and friends.

DAGHANG SALAMAT KANINYONG TANAN !
