TO MY MOTHER

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to reiterate my thanks to the following:

Dr. Marcelino M. Maceda, my thesis adviser, for providing me with direction and support in all phases of my graduate work;

Fr. Rudolf Rahmann, my censor, for his encouragement, valuable comments and criticisms;

Fr. Wilhelm Flieger, then Chairman of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, for my liberal workload as Graduate Assistant that enabled me to complete my graduate courses;

Mr. Buenaventura Cordova and Mr. Leonidas Tan, my readers, for their valuable suggestions;

Lillian Cui-Garcia, my teacher, colleague, and friend, for playing her roles so well;

Lucia Tan-Fernandez, my friend and most faithful partner in this work;

Ms. Praxedes Bulabog and Mrs. Linda Kintanar-Alburo, for editing the drafts;

Hector Hataas and Acquim Bulalhog, my volunteer-research assistants;

Nangga Mutya, my Higa-onon friend, regular companion and interpreter;

Mambayhon Mutya and his family, my most hospitable Higa-onon friends for providing me accommodation in their own home and the opportunity to observe the Higa-onon day-to-day living;

My Higa-onon key informants and respondents, for their enthusiasm in relating and explaining their way of life;

The Philippine Social Science Council, for funding the fieldwork and the reproduction of the report;

Remedios Arrazola, for painstakingly typing the final draft;

Cornelio Baldoza, for preparing the map;

The family of the late Francisco Talaroc, Sr., my uncle, who provided me ~~with~~ the initial access to the Higa-onon communities and introduced me to his Higa-onon friends (I deeply regret his having passed away before the completion of the study); and

My mother, to whom this work is lovingly dedicated.

I take full responsibility for whatever errors that may be found in the final report.
